Visitation at the memorials is still fairly light.

The immigration rally on the National Mall has begun and continues to be monitored by the Division of Permits Management and USPP. No incidents to report.

The Division of Permits Management is in the process of amending the Honor Flight permit to allow 4 portable restrooms to be placed at the WWII Memorial for their first amendment demonstration.

No issues have been reported to NPS or USPP regarding the closures.

U.S. Rep. Ellison arrested during immigration rally

- Blog Post by: Corey Mitchell
- October 8, 2013 - 3:23 PM

U.S. Rep. Keith Ellison was arrested Tuesday by U.S. Capitol Police during an immigration rally on the National Mall.

As protestors marched toward the U.S. Capitol, Ellison and several other House Democrats sat in the middle of Independence Avenue, blocking rush hour traffic.

Police led Ellison away in cuffs shortly after 4 p.m.

Ellison's office said the move was an act of "civil disobedience" designed to urge Congress to pass legislation that would allow the nation's undocumented immigrants to apply for U.S. citizenship.

The march was held on the National Mall even though the open-area park is closed due to the federal government shutdown. The protestors were allowed to rally under their First Amendment rights, the National Park Service said.

Tuesday's protest comes on the heels of more than 100 rallies around the country Saturday, including one in Minneapolis that drew nearly 2,000 people.

Ellison was arrested in April in front of the Sudanese Embassy in Washington as they protested the expulsion of aid groups in Darfur.

Hi Maureen -

I know melissa james reached out to you and I wanted to follow up on her request.

Congressman Neugebauer would like to privately reach out to the park ranger at the World War II memorial last week. He would welcome the opportunity to privately speak to her or send her a note of apology.

If you have any guidance on what might be appropriate, we would appreciate any thoughts you might have.

Thanks so much

Hi Maureen -

I know melissa james reached out to you and I wanted to follow up on her request.

Congressman Neugebauer would like to privately reach out to the park ranger at the World War II memorial last week. He would welcome the opportunity to privately speak to her or send her a note of apology.

If you have any guidance on what might be appropriate, we would appreciate any thoughts you might have.

Thanks so much

Jeanette

Thanks all. Mike is sharing this with reporters now.

On the record:

Under the same First Amendment rights that are allowing Honor Flight veterans and their families to visit the veterans memorials on the National Mall, other groups will be granted access to the park for First Amendment activities in accordance with established National Park Service regulations.

The National Mall and Memorial Parks -- like all 401 national parks across the country -- is closed due to the federal government shutdown. With the lapse in Congressional appropriations, the National Park Service has furloughed more than 20,000 employees nationwide, including more than 300 in National Mall and Memorial Parks. The U.S. Park Police are at full capacity during the shutdown to protect life and property.

On background:

The March for Immigrant Dignity and Respect applied for and received a permit for the First Amendment activity through the National Mall and Memorial Parks office.

Division of Permits Management and USPP continue to monitor immigration rally on the Mall. The last band is performing and faith leaders are getting ready to speak. The event is running a little behind. Some of the crowd is starting to leave.

There were reports of congressmen demanding access to the Lincoln Memorial. The congressmen turned out to be aids to Michele Bachmann and left the area after conversations with USPP.

NPS Rangers continue to report light visitation at the sites.

Officer injured during vehicle and foot pursuit of carjacking suspects that were apprehended. Officer medevac'd.

U.S. Rep. Ellison arrested during immigration rally

- Blog Post by: Corey Mitchell
- October 8, 2013 - 3:23 PM

U.S. Rep. Keith Ellison was arrested Tuesday by U.S. Capitol Police during an immigration rally on the National Mall.

As protestors marched toward the U.S. Capitol, Ellison and several other House Democrats sat in the middle of Independence Avenue, blocking rush hour traffic.

Police led Ellison away in cuffs shortly after 4 p.m.

Ellison's office said the move was an act of "civil disobedience" designed to urge Congress to pass legislation that would allow the nation's undocumented immigrants to apply for U.S. citizenship.

The march was held on the National Mall even though the open-area park is closed due to the federal government shutdown. The protestors were allowed to rally under their First Amendment rights, the National Park Service said.

Tuesday's protest comes on the heels of more than 100 rallies around the country Saturday, including one in Minneapolis that drew nearly 2,000 people.

Ellison was arrested in April in front of the Sudanese Embassy in Washington as they protested the expulsion of aid groups in Darfur.

All,

The demonstration is scheduled to begin at 1200 hours on the Mall with the Stage set up on the gravel walkway at 10th street. The viewing area will be the grass areas to the west and they are expected 25,000 people. No later than 1500, the March will leave the Mall on Jefferson Drive and enter the US Capitol Grounds from Jefferson Drive and 3rd Street.

We are hearing rumors that as many as 200 people may want to be arrested on the Capitol Grounds.

As additional information becomes available, we will pass it along.
