Description:
All, We are starting off the New Year with a few changes to the standing meetings, which will be going into effect next week. Starting next week the Monday and Thursday Politcals meetings will be merged into one standing meeting on Mondays at 9 am in the North Penthouse. The purpose of the Monday meeting will be to provide the entire team with a look-ahead for the coming week and to flag hot topics for general awareness and sensitivity. There will no longer be a Thursday morning meeting. Katie will be sending out a standing calendar invite for this meeting. Please let Ben or Katie know if you have any questions about this new format. I hope everyone had a joyful (and restful) holiday, and Happy New Year! 2015 will be a great year, and fun too - I promise. Best, TPB

Description:
PURPOSE: The purpose of this senior-level event is to discuss keydeliverables from the 2014 U.S-Mexico High-Level Economic Dialogue(HLED) as well as strategic areas of focus for 2015. In May 2013,Presidents Obama and Peña-Nieto announced the formation of the HLED topromote economic growth in the United States and Mexico, to create jobsfor citizens on both sides of the border, and to ensure that bothnations can compete globally, making North America more competitive.The HLED is envisioned as a flexible platform intended to build upon, but not duplicate, a range of existing high-level bilateral dialoguesand working groups. Led at the Cabinet-level, the U.S. side of the HLEDis co-chaired by the Departments of State and Commerce and the Officeof the U.S. Trade Representative (USTR), and includes participation from other USG Agencies, including Interior. Both Mexico and the UnitedStates identified energy cooperation as a strategic area of focus fornext year. Other priority areas of focus for 2015 include regulatorycooperation, partnering for regional and global leadership, FOBESII(Bilateral Forum on Higher Education, Innovation, and Research),regional and global trade, and modern borders. DOI has a long-standinglead role in U.S.-Mexico cooperation to ensure the safe and responsibledevelopment of oil and gas resources in the Gulf of Mexico and iscommitted to further engagement with Mexico in support of its energyreform efforts for both offshore and onshore. BOEM and BSEE engagebilaterally and in multilateral fora with Mexican counterparts in orderto improve their existing relationship and to build upon safety andenvironmental regulation in a Gulf of Mexico region where commonoperators work across American, Mexican, and transboundaryjurisdictions. Working with the State Department, DOI (including BLM) provided information and advice to Mexico regarding onshore developmentof unconventional oil and gas resources. USGS also engages with Mexicoon hydrocarbon resource assessments. Given the importance of the energysector, Commerce Under Secretary Selig stated at a U.S.-Mexico HLEDpreparatory meeting on December 3 that he would like to "ensure thatSecretaries Moniz (DOE), Jewell, and Coldwell (SENER) attend theJanuary 6 HLED Principals' meeting." Vice President Biden will chairthe HLED and provide brief opening remarks with Mexican Minister of Finance and Public Credit, Luis Videgaray. Presidents Obama andPeña-Nieto are expected to meet on the margins of the HLED (TBC).RECOMMENDATION: This High-Level Economic Dialogue offers an excellentvenue for Secretary Jewell to engage in a strategic discussionregarding the importance of energy cooperation with Mexico in 2015 andbeyond. PMB highly recommends that she participate in this event.Proposed Agenda: U.S. – MEXICO HIGH-LEVEL ECONOMIC DIALOGUE PRINCIPALS'MEETING Tuesday, January 6, 2015 Eisenhower Executive Office Building,Indian Treaty Room (TBC) Washington, DC 9:00 a.m. – 10:30 a.m. I.Introductions and Opening Remarks - Open Press (10 minutes; 5 minuteseach) a. Description:
Dear Mr. Michael L. Connor, My name is Bruno Verdini. I am a doctoralresearcher working with Professor Lawrence Susskind, Director of MIT'sScience Impact Collaborative and Co-Founder of the Program onNegotiation at Harvard Law School. With support from the NationalScience Foundation, I have been speaking directly with the stakeholdersthat shaped the 2012 landmark agreement between the United States andMexico on the shared waters of the Colorado River (Minute 319). Thisincludes many of your wonderful colleagues, such as Robert Snow, LorriLee, Terry Fulp, Jennifer McCloskey, Don Ostler, Alfredo Riera, PerriBenemelis, Karen Kwon, Jennifer Pitt, Taylor Hawes, Peter Culp, andPeter Silva (and in the coming weeks Pat Mulroy, John Entsminger,etc.), as well as the Mexican stakeholders, including former Mexico President, Felipe Calderón, Ambassador Arturo Sarukhán, Engineer MarioLópez, and Secretary José de Jesús Luévano, among many others. Thebinational agreement represents an enormously constructive example ofmutual gains negotiation in a transboundary multi-stakeholder context.There are many insights from these negotiations that are useful tobreak the deadlock in other international resource managementconflicts. I am eager to get your perspective! Mr. Bob Snow and Ms.Lorri Lee kindly suggested your perspective would be very helpful toour research. I am glad to make myself available for a conversation anyday in December, January, or February. I am based in Boston and I couldspeak over the phone, any day and at any time that makes the most senseto you. Attached to this message is a document with a formal invitationletter and in the second page, a short list with the types of questionsI would hope to address in our conversation. The research is focused onhighlighting how stakeholders are negotiating new ways to mutuallymanage the benefits of transboundary resources. Again, it would befantastic if you could share with us your time and negotiation experience. Thank you very much for your generosity and I hope to befortunate to speak with you. All, We are starting off the New Year with a few changes to the standing meetings, which will be going into effect next week. Starting next week the Monday and Thursday Politcals meetings will be merged into one standing meeting on Mondays at 9 am in the North Penthouse. The purpose of the Monday meeting will be to provide the entire team with a look-ahead for the coming week and to flag hot topics for general awareness and sensitivity. There will no longer be a Thursday morning meeting. Katie will be sending out a standing calendar invite for this meeting. Please let Ben or Katie know if you have any questions about this new format. I hope everyone had a joyful (and restful) holiday, and Happy New Year! 2015 will be a great year, and fun too - I promise. Best, TPB

Description:
Happy New Year to all of you. I'm reaching out today with a requestfrom Mayor Ashley Swearengin of the City of Fresno, CA. MayorSwearengin is planning a trip to DC for the upcoming US Conference ofMayors winter meeting. The mayor would look forward to an opportunityto meet with Secretary Jewell, if she has any availability betweenJanuary 21-23, 2015. Mayor Swearengin hopes to discuss the ongoingwater emergency in the Central Valley. Please let us know if it mightbe possible to coordinate a brief meeting with Secretary Jewell. We understand that will be a busy week with the State of the Union, USCM,etc. The mayor would be happy to meet with another appropriate officialat Interior if the Secretary is not available. Thank you so much foryour consideration. We look forward to hearing from you. Description:
Dear Colleagues: As discussed in the Dec. 5 PMC meeting, thePresident's FY16 budget will help each agency establish a DigitalService team. These teams will be comprised of engineers, designers,and product managers who will be tasked with improving the most important services provided by each agency. More information aboutthese teams are enclosed in the attached presentation, which was alsopart of the 12/5 PMC materials. To kick off this effort, we would liketo schedule an introductory meeting with you and any technical leadersat your agency who will be part of planning for these teams. We'll aimto do these meetings in the beginning of January, after the holidayseason. The meetings will cover: · The function and role of the DigitalService teams · Identification of 3-4 important services your agency'sDigital Service team is likely to focus on (please come prepared withsome ideas of what you believe this focus services should be) · Mappingout the steps to take in FY15 for preparing for these teams (hiringauthorities, recruiting a leader, identifying specific projects,Identifying where in the org chart the Digital Service team will sit),and describing the support my office will plan to provide your agency(recruiting, hiring, technical collaboration) · The possibility ofbeginning to build your Digital Service team in 2015 My assistant JuliaReed (cc'd here; jreed2@omb.eop.gov) will work with your office toschedule this meeting at a mutually convenient time in the coming month. A few of you may have already heard from our E-Gov team onmeeting dates, so we'll strive to keep those where possible. I lookforward to working together on this important initiative, and thank youfor your continued hard work on behalf of our committee. Please let me know if you have any questions. Your team can also reach out to mySenior Advisor, Leandra English (Leandra_English@omb.eop.gov) forfollow up conversations. As a reminder, there will be no PMC on January2nd, so everyone can enjoy hopefully one extra day of rest. Wish you avery happy and safe holiday season. Best, Beth Cobert
