

American Wildlife Art by Dr. David J. Wagner

AN INTERIOR MUSEUM PROGRAM

Dr. David J. Wagner, Ph.D.

A leading wildlife art scholar, curator, and author

Presenting a talk on the history of the wildlife art genre

Dr. Wagner, curator of the exhibit Endangered Species: Flora and Fauna in Peril and author of the book

American Wildlife Art, will talk about the history of the wildlife art genre as a product of four centuries of cultural, aesthetic, and ideological developments.

Wednesday, December 3, 2008

10:00 am

Museum Classroom

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR MUSEUM

Main Interior Building 1849 C Street, NW Washington, DC 20240
For more information call (202) 208-4743 www.doi.gov/interiormuseum