Re: Apology Bill

Dear Mr. Berry:

The Apology Bill being an acknowledgment of the fact that the United States committed a wrongdoing to the Nation of Hawaii, and that the United States pride's itself as being founded on truth and justice, as an American citizen, I would like to see that truth and justice be administered to the people of Hawaii.

As a native Hawaiian, I feel that the United States have an obligation to correct the wrong, and replace the culture of this dying race, to the point of self-sufficiency as it once was.

I believe that the Nation of Hawaii should expect no less.

Sincerely,

/s/ Kelii Ching
