I decided to write you since all the hearings are now over.
I regret that I didn't speak while the hearings were held on Kaua'i tho'
I was present...that was more important.

However, I was one of those who stood up when Kane Pa asked the audience
to stand if they wanted Hawai'i returned and become independent.

I have remained in the "silent majority" since the early "60's" when the Hawaiian struggle began. I can no longer remain silent, when a non-

Hawaiian testified at the hearing in support of the native Hawaiians.

For me, the issue is simple, just give it back to us and let us determine for ourselves the direction our nation needs to go.
It should be our choice.

Sen. Daniel Inouye apollogized for what e considered rude behavior by protesters. We don't need him to aplogize for us. It is over a hundred ears of pain and frustration that was being expressed .

Mahalo,
Nathan Kalama
