Lahui Kaka‘ikahi

Endangered Species

Established:
 May-09

Summary: This organization is exclusively for charitable and educational purposes. It is our mission to provide Native Hawaiians with hand-on training in the construction industry. We will accomplish this mission by fostering the sense of "doing" and innovative thinking that is an intrinsic part of our culture. We envision a Native Hawaiian workforce that is both leading-edge and culturally cognizant at the same time. We will encourage our students to cultivate the value of Malama by passing on their knowledge to others in their community and by providing additional career opportunities for other Native Hawaiians, should they choose to go into business for themselves.

Native Hawaiian Church

Established:
2009

Summary: Protect, promote, and preserve native Hawaiian religious, cultural, and spiritual practices and traditions related to the people of old. These traditions and practices have evolved and continue to develop to enrich and nurture the wellness and health of the people and the land. These practices and traditions include Makahiki, Hooponopono, Hookuikahi, Laau Lapaau, and Lomilomi as passed down and practiced in today's world. These practices and traditions require a commitment to protect and preserve all archeological, historical, and iwi kupuna burial sites as sacred sites deserving respect and preservation. The protection and preservation of these sacred sites includes traditional cultural properties, places, and natural resources, and foods, plants, fishes, birds, and animals.
