

THE SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR
WASHINGTON

ORDER NO. 3286, Amendment No. 3 (Amended material in bold italics)

SIGNATURE DATE: August 31, 2011

Subject: Establishment of the Office of Youth in the Great Outdoors

Sec.1 Purpose. This Order creates the Office of Youth in the Great Outdoors to provide Department-wide leadership, coordination, and direction regarding the promotion, use, and expansion of programs to educate, engage, and employ youth at the Department of the Interior (DOI). It also establishes the Youth in Natural Resources Coordinating Council.

Sec. 2 Background. The connection of America's young people to our outdoor landscapes can be enhanced through hands-on experiences and long-term engagement, service, involvement in outdoor recreation, hunting, fishing, wildlife watching, and work in natural resources.

The Office will coordinate Departmental efforts to educate, engage, and employ youth and build upon the historical achievements of programs such as the Civilian Conservation Corps. Under the direction of the Office, programs will engage young people from diverse backgrounds including tribal and underserved populations and those who have little or no opportunity to experience the outdoors, and will include a special emphasis on encouraging the participation of young women and girls. America's young people will play a key role in creating a new energy frontier, tackling climate change impacts, empowering Native American communities, building trails, enhancing wildlife habitat, and improving and restoring our cultural and historic landmarks. The Public Lands Corps Act of 1993 and the Youth Conservation Corps Act of 1970 provide useful authority to increase youth engagement and employment.
