Series: Delegation

Part 212: Policy, Management and Budget

Chapter 17: Director, Office of Law Enforcement, Security, and Emergency Management

Originating Office: Office of Law Enforcement, Security, and Emergency Management

212 DM 17

17.1 Purpose. This chapter provides for the delegation of authorities to the Director, Office of Law Enforcement, Security, and Emergency Management (OLESEM).

17.2 Delegation. The following authorities delegated to the Assistant Secretary - Policy, Management and Budget are further delegated through the Deputy Assistant Secretary - Law Enforcement, Security, and Emergency Management to the Director, OLESEM:

- A. Authority to carry out the program functions and management responsibilities in 112 DM 17.
- B. Authority to issue handbooks affecting Departmental law enforcement, security, homeland security, and emergency management programs.
- C. Authority to hire and authorize commissioned law enforcement personnel to exercise law enforcement authority.
- D. Authority to oversee, coordinate, and review law enforcement, security and emergency management budgets for bureaus and offices.
- E. Authority to coordinate, evaluate, and implement the Department's response to Homeland Security Presidential Directives and other law enforcement, homeland security, and emergency mandates and Executive Orders.
- F. Authority to make decisions about the Department's law enforcement resources when a determination is made by a properly authorized official that a national emergency or catastrophic/critical incident is occurring or about to occur. (A National emergency is defined as a situation that could result in, or has resulted in, a Presidential Declaration of a National Emergency. A catastrophic/critical Incident is a serious incident including, but not limited to, a terrorist action, a life threatening situation, a natural disaster or a significant threat to Departmental resources.)

17.3 Limitation. Authorities delegated in paragraph F above may not be redelegated and will terminate when a determination is properly made that the circumstances giving rise to the delegation no longer exist.

17.4 Redelegation. Except where further delegation is prohibited by statute, Executive Order, or limitation established by other competent authority, the authorities listed in paragraphs A - E above may be further delegated.
