credited may be appropriated, applied, or expended from the transportation use special fund prior to July 1, 1990[;], except [that such funds shall continue to be available and be used] for purposes provided under section 261-5. The director of transportation shall administer the fund."

SECTION 4. Section 261D-2, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is amended to read as follows:

"~~[[§261D-2]]~~ Disposition of the transportation use special fund. For so long as airport revenue bonds issued before June 13, 1989 are outstanding, the director of transportation shall transfer to the airport revenue fund created by section 248-8 from moneys [on deposit in] credited to the transportation use special fund, as permitted by and in accordance with section 37-53, an amount which, together with moneys on deposit in the airport revenue fund[,] other than moneys on credit to the transportation use special fund therein, will cause the aggregate amount of moneys on deposit in the airport revenue fund other than moneys on credit to the transportation special fund therein, to be at least one hundred fifty per cent of the requirements of such fund for the ensuing twelve months[.] determined as prescribed by rules adopted pursuant to chapter 91. At any time after complying with the provisions of the preceding sentence[,] or after no airport revenue bonds issued before June 13, 1989 are outstanding, the director of transportation may transfer all or any portion of the balance of the moneys [on deposit in] credited to the transportation use special fund to the general fund of the State or to any special fund under the control of the department of transportation as permitted by and in accordance with section 37-53."

SECTION 5. Statutory material to be repealed is bracketed. New statutory material is underscored.

SECTION 6. This Act shall take effect upon its approval.

(Approved June 15, 1990.)

ACT 150

H.B. NO. 2984

A Bill for an Act Relating to Kalawahine Lands.

Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Hawaii:

SECTION 1. The legislature finds that, pursuant to S.C.R. No. 180, S.D. 1, which was adopted by both houses during the regular session of 1989, the State has finalized an assessment of the legal disposition and possible uses of Kalawahine, Oahu. The purpose of this Act is to effectuate disposition of these lands.

SECTION 2. Except as otherwise provided in SECTION 5, the department of land and natural resources is hereby authorized to negotiate and enter into long-term residential leases not to exceed sixty-five years in duration with persons who meet the following criteria:

- (1) On the date of enactment of this Act, reside on parcel 8 of tax map key no. 2-4-34, or have valid permits allowing them to reside on this

- land, or are descendants of persons who resided on this land before May 16, 1934; and
- (2) Currently have homes on this land for use as their own residences; and
- (3) Can prove that the various governments of Hawaii have expressed an intent to grant them long-term tenure.

SECTION 3. Any other law to the contrary notwithstanding, including chapter 171, Hawaii Revised Statutes, the department of land and natural resources is hereby authorized to negotiate and enter into lease agreements in accordance with the provisions and limitations of this Act provided that the authority granted by this Act shall expire:

- (1) When leases have been negotiated and recorded in the bureau of conveyances with, or the requests authorized by SECTION 5 have been filed and approved for, all persons meeting the criteria in SECTION 2; or
- (2) On January 1, 1992, whichever is first.

SECTION 4. The land leased to each person under SECTION 2 of this Act shall be determined by the department of land and natural resources, pursuant to any applicable guidelines for residential leases and rules established by the department.

SECTION 5. Structures permitted on land for which long-term residential leases are granted under SECTION 2 of this Act shall be limited to structures in existence on November 3, 1988, or replacement structures of approximately the same size.

SECTION 6. Any person who meets the criteria in SECTION 2 and can prove that the person was given a right of first opportunity to lease other similar lands under the control of the department of Hawaiian home lands pursuant to Section 3 of the Act of May 16, 1934, Public Law No. 277, 48 Stat. 779, Chapter 200, as amended by Section 3 of the Act of July 9, 1952, Public Law No. 481, 66 Stat. 513, Chapter 614, or can prove that the person is a descendant of a person who was given a right of first opportunity, whether or not the right was exercised, may elect, before July 1, 1991, to have the land upon which the person resides transferred to the department of Hawaiian home lands by filing a written request, accompanied by the requisite proof, with the department of land and natural resources. Upon the filing and approval of the written request, the department of land and natural resources shall immediately transfer title to the land, as determined pursuant to SECTION 4 of this Act, to the department of Hawaiian home lands, without cost, and the land shall be deemed to have the status of Hawaiian home lands. The person making the request shall be granted a lease for the land in accordance with section 208 of the Hawaiian Homes Commission Act, 1920, as amended, notwithstanding the limitation on leasing of lands to native Hawaiians in item (1) of section 208.

SECTION 7. Section 203, Hawaiian Homes Commission Act, 1920, as amended, is amended to read as follows:

“§203. [[[Certain public lands designated “available lands.”]]] All public lands of the description and acreage, as follows, excluding (a) all lands within any forest reservation, (b) all cultivated sugar-cane lands, and (c) all public lands

SECTION 8. Section 209, Hawaiian Homes Commission Act, 1920, as amended, is amended by amending subsection (a) to read as follows:

“(a) Upon the death of the lessee, the lessee’s interest in the tract or tracts and the improvements thereon, including growing crops and aquacultural stock (either on the tract or in any collective contract or program to which the lessee is a party by virtue of the lessee’s interest in the tract or tracts), shall vest in the relatives of the decedent as provided in this paragraph. From the following relatives of the lessee who are (1) at least one-quarter Hawaiian, husband, wife, or children, or (2) native Hawaiian, widows or widowers of the children, grandchildren, brothers and sisters, widows or widowers of the brothers and sisters, or nieces and nephews, -- the lessee shall designate the person or persons to whom the lessee directs the lessee’s interest in the tract or tracts to vest upon the lessee’s death. The Hawaiian blood requirements shall not apply to the descendants of those who are not native Hawaiians but who were entitled to the leased lands under section 3 of the Act of May 16, 1934 (48 Stat. 777, 779), as amended[.], or under Section of the Act of (Stat. ,). In all cases such person or persons need not be eighteen years of age. Such designation shall be in writing, may be specified at the time of execution of such lease with a right in such lessee in similar manner to change such beneficiary at any time and shall be filed with the department and approved by the department in order to be effective to vest such interests in the successor or successors so named.

In case of the death of any lessee, except as hereinabove provided, who has failed to specify a successor or successors as approved by the department, the department may select from only the following qualified relatives of the decedent:

- (1) Husband or wife;
- (2) If there is no husband or wife, then the children.

The rights to the use and occupancy of the tract or tracts may be made effective as of the date of the death of such lessee.

In the case of the death of a lessee leaving no designated successor or successors, husband, wife, or children qualified to be a lessee of Hawaiian home lands, the land subject to the lease shall resume its status as unleased Hawaiian home lands and the department is authorized to lease such land to a native Hawaiian as provided in this Act.

Upon the death of a lessee who has not designated a successor and who leaves a spouse not qualified to succeed to the lease or children not qualified to succeed to the lease, or upon the death of a lessee leaving no such relative qualified to be a lessee of Hawaiian home lands, or the cancellation of a lease by the department, or the surrender of a lease by the lessee, the department shall appraise the value of all such improvements and growing crops or improvements and aquacultural stock, as the case may be, and shall pay to the nonqualified spouse or the nonqualified children as the lessee shall have designated prior to the lessee’s death, or to the legal representative of the deceased lessee, or the previous lessee, as the case may be, the value thereof, less any indebtedness to the department, or for taxes, or for any other indebtedness the payment of which has been assured by the department, owed by the deceased lessee or the previous lessee. Such payments shall be made out of the Hawaiian home loan fund and shall be considered an advance therefrom and shall be repaid by the successor or successors to the tract involved. If available cash in the Hawaiian home loan fund is insufficient to make such payments, payments may be advanced from the Hawaiian home general loan fund and shall be repaid by the successor or successors to the tract involved; provided that any repayment for advances made from the Hawaiian home general loan fund shall be at the interest rate established by the department for loans made from the Hawaiian home general loan fund.

Such appraisal shall be made by three appraisers, one of whom shall be named by the department, one by the previous lessee or the legal representative of the deceased lessee, as the case may be, and the third shall be selected by the two appraisers aforementioned."

SECTION 9. Statutory material to be repealed is bracketed. New statutory material is underscored.

SECTION 10. The provisions of the amendments made by this Act to the Hawaiian Homes Commission Act, 1920, as amended, are declared to be severable, and if any section, sentence, clause, or phrase, or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held ineffective because there is a requirement of having the consent of the United States to take effect, then that portion only shall take effect upon the granting of consent by the United States and effectiveness of the remainder of these amendments or the application thereof shall not be affected.

SECTION 11. This Act shall take effect upon its approval.
