GENERAL ACCOUNTING OFFICE
OFFICE OF INVESTIGATIONS
REPORT OF STUDY AND INVESTIGATION OF
THE FUNDS AND SECURITIES OF THE SEVERAL INDIAN TRIBES,
INCLUDING THOSE OF TRIBAL ORGANIZATIONS, PURSUANT TO
SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 117,
EIGHTY SECOND CONGRESS

WASHINGTON 25

OFFICE OF
COMPTROLLER GENERAL OF THE UNITED STATES
IN REPLY QUOTE INITIALS

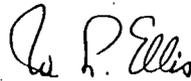

I-17218

April 1, 1952

The Comptroller General:

In compliance with Senate Resolution No. 147, of July 23, 1951, and with your direction, dated July 30, 1951, the Office of Investigations has completed a study of the amounts of the funds and securities of the several Indian tribes in the United States.

There are attached a facsimile of the Senate Resolution, a summary and index, and the completed report.

Chief of Investigations

Enclosure

S. Res. 147

In the Senate of the United States,

July 23 (legislative day, June 27), 1951.

Resolved, That the General Accounting Office is authorized and directed to make a study and investigation for the purpose of ascertaining the amounts of the funds and securities of the several Indian tribes, including those of tribal organizations, whether held in the Treasury of the United States, in private banks or elsewhere, and the rates of interest on such funds, and such other information with respect to such funds for the period beginning on July 1, 1928, as it may deem pertinent, for the purpose of bringing up to date the report of the Comptroller General (S. Doc. 263, Seventieth Congress) made pursuant to the Second Deficiency Act, fiscal year, 1928 (45 Stat. 887).

SEC. 2. The General Accounting Office shall report to the Senate at the earliest practicable date the results of the study and investigation made pursuant to this resolution.

Attest:

Lucie L. Rippe
Secretary

Report of Study and Investigation of the Funds and Securities of the Several Indian Tribes,
Including Those of Tribal Organizations Pursuant to
Senate Resolution No. 147,
Eighty Second Congress

SUMMARY OF REPORT AND INDEX

A. Introduction and Summary Statement.

Page
III-X

B. Tribal Funds. As of June 30, 1951, there were Tribal Funds on deposit in the United States Treasury to the credit of the several Indian tribes in the amount of slightly over $80 million. Included in this amount are interest and accruals at various rates prescribed by law. During the fiscal year 1951, interest was earned on the several tribal funds and credited to the respective interest accounts in the amount of $2 million.

1-65

C. Tribal Organization Funds. As of June 30, 1951, there were Tribal Organization Funds on deposit with various Government disbursing officers and in private banks, and cash on hand with the various Tribal Organization officials in the total amount of slightly over $12 million.

66-118

D. Receivables. As of June 30, 1951, there were receivables in the amount of $8.4 million due the several Indian tribes from individual Indians and Indian enterprises as a result of their credit activities authorized by the Act of June 16, 1934 (25 U.S.C. 470-471).

139-137

E. Income Producing Assets. These assets are divided into two general categories, as follows:

138-168

1. Assets on which a value can be placed (single items valued under $10,000 were not surveyed and are not included): As of June 30, 1951, the reported assets of the several tribes totaled slightly over $19 million.

2. Assets for which the value cannot be determined are shown only as to the income derived therefrom for the last accounting year where such income exceeded $10,000, for each asset. The several tribes received income from such assets for the last accounting year in the amount of slightly over $10 million. The income from these assets is included in this report for the purpose of showing their indicated capital value.

F. Securities. As of June 30, 1951, there were funds of the several Indian tribes and of individual Indians deposited with the Indian Service Special Disbursing Agents invested in securities, principally United States Government Bonds (25 U.S.C. 162a), as follows:

Tribal	$ 929,464.75
Individual	14,591,612.12
Total	$15,521,076.87

In addition to the above investment in securities, funds in excess of current disbursing needs, totaling over $24 million in the official accounts of the Indian Service Special Disbursing Agents, are invested in United States Treasury bonds classed as "Group Securities." Portions of this investment at certain agencies represent special deposits and Federal moneys rather than individual Indian or tribal funds.

169-170

G. Individual Indian Moneys. (Now called "Indian Money Accounts") As of June 30, 1951, there were individual Indian moneys on deposit with the Indian Service Special Disbursing Agents in the amount of $29 million.

171

H. Loans Payable. As of June 30, 1951, there were balances due the United States on loans made to the several Indian tribes and individual Indians as follows:

1. Revolving Credit Loans (Act of June 18, 1934; 25 U. S. C. 470-471)

Tribes	$ 8,953,419.40
Individuals	524,656.49
Total	$ 9,478,075.89

2. Reimbursable loans - loans made to individual Indians from other than revolving credit funds

172-189

I. Tribal Claims. As of June 30, 1951, there were 395 petitions of tribal claims before the Indian Claims Commission and the Court of Claims remaining unsettled, of which 287 did not state the amounts claimed and 108 claimed amounts totaling over $2 billion.

190-196

J. Submarginal Lands. As of June 1951, there was on special deposit with the Indian Service the amount of $178,214.50 representing fees collected on submarginal lands transferred from the Department of Agriculture to the Department of the Interior, with administrative jurisdiction vested in the Commissioner of Indian Affairs by Executive Order No. 7868, dated April 15, 1938.

Report of Study and Investigation of the Funds and Securities of the Several Indian Tribes, Including Those of Tribal Organizations, Pursuant to Senate Resolution No. 147, Eighty Second Congress.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY STATEMENT

In accordance with Senate Resolution No. 147, 82nd Congress, ^{1/} the General Accounting Office has made a study and investigation of Indian tribal funds, including those of tribal organizations, whether held in the Treasury of the United States, private banks, or elsewhere.

The study and investigation included Indian tribal funds and related subjects defined as follows: (1) Tribal Funds which include those funds deposited in the Treasury of the United States and maintained in principal accounts as the result of specific acts of Congress, together with the accrued interest thereon; (2) Tribal Organization Funds which include the miscellaneous tribal revenue funds and the funds of tribal enterprises, cooperatives, and associations; (3) Receivables which include only those receivables of the parent tribal organization; (4) Income Producing Assets which include the net assets of tribal enterprise, association, and cooperative projects valued at more than $10,000 each and the annual income from timber sales, grazing and mineral leases or royalties where the income exceeds $10,000 from each source for each tribe; (5) Securities, which unless otherwise stated, represent tribal and individual investments in public debt obligations of the United States; (6) Individual Indian Moneys which include only those funds on deposit with the Indian Service Special Disbursing Agents;

^{1/} Senate Resolution 147 - 82nd Congress, July 23, 1951.

Resolved, That the General Accounting Office is authorized and directed to make a study and investigation for the purpose of ascertaining the amounts of the funds and securities of the several Indian tribes, including those of tribal organizations, whether held in the Treasury of the United States, in private banks, or elsewhere, and the rates of interest on such funds, and such other information with respect to such funds for the period beginning on July 1, 1928, as it may deem pertinent, for the purpose of bringing up to date the report of the Comptroller General (S. Doc. 263, Seventieth Congress) made pursuant to the Second Deficiency Act, fiscal year, 1928 (45 Stat. 887).

(7) Loans Payable include loans to tribes, associations, cooperatives and individuals under the Act of June 18, 1936, ^{1/} and balances due from individuals under the old reimbursable loan program; (8) Tribal Claims include a listing of the petitions on file with the Indian Claims Commission and the United States Court of Claims together with the stated amount; and (9) Submarginal Lands includes a narrative on the use and fees received for the submarginal lands transferred to the Department of the Interior for administration by Executive Order No. 7868, dated April 15, 1938.

Financial data set forth herein was taken from records maintained in the Treasury Department and the Bureau of Indian Affairs in Washington, D. C., and the area accounting offices of the Bureau of Indian Affairs, Indian Agencies, tribal records, and private banks, and has been verified and investigated to the extent practicable to substantiate the data reported.

Receivables and Income Producing Assets of the Alaska Native Service are not included in this report for the reason that verified information was incomplete due to the inaccessibility of the projects, and the information could not be obtained in time for use in this report.

There follows a summary statement of the funds, listed alphabetically by States and agencies followed by a detailed listing of the funds in schedules supporting the summary. Except as specifically stated otherwise, all funds are reported as of June 30, 1951.

TRIBAL ORGANIZATION FUNDS

Tribal Organization Funds are funds advanced to the various tribes to carry on revolving credit activities; working capital of tribal enterprises, cooperatives and associations; and miscellaneous tribal revenues such as tribal court fines and proceeds from the sale of hunting and fishing licenses. Tribal Organization Funds are on deposit with regional disbursing officers of the Treasury Department, Indian Service Special Disbursing Agents, and private banks and also include the operating cash on hand with the organization treasurers or bookkeepers.

There follows a detailed listing of Tribal Organization Funds of the several Indian Tribes listed alphabetically by States and agencies. Unless otherwise specifically stated all funds are stated as of June 30, 1951.

INCOME PRODUCING ASSETS

This section of the report is intended to show properties of the several tribes represented by income producing assets in addition to those amounts reported under Tribal Funds, Tribal Organization Funds, and Securities. This section does not include the income or assets of individual Indians, nor the interest on tribal funds on deposit in the United States Treasury. The Income Producing Assets fall into two general categories as follows: (1) assets for which a value can be shown, and (2) assets for which no value can be readily estimated. Each of the categories are taken up separately hereafter.

1. Assets for which a value can be shown include only those assets, exclusive of real property granted to the tribe by treaties and are shown for those assets in excess of $10,000 for each asset. The values are stated as reflected on the current financial statements or as estimated by employees of the Bureau of Indian Affairs, Branch of Extension and Credit. There follows a listing of such assets listed alphabetically by States and agencies.

Jicarilla Apache Sheep Breeding Enterprise was established in February 1948, as a tribal income producing enterprise and to improve the quality of tribal and individually-owned sheep. The tribe had previously purchased all shareholders' interest in the old people's herd at time of each member's death, and in February 1948, purchased the remaining shareholder's interest therein. These purchased sheep were consolidated with those of the tribal ram herd into one enterprise. On February 24, 1949, a new plan of operation was effected and the value of the sheep at that time, or value of tribal investment of $43,233.44 was considered as a tribal loan to the enterprise. Net assets as of June 30, 1951 were $54,131.71, including 1,670 head of sheep valued at $45,700. Cash of $7,960.87 is reflected in a separate section of this report.

The investments in group securities shown on pages V to X, do not belong to any particular individual or tribe, but represent a purchase of Treasury bonds with surplus funds in the accounts of the Indian Service Special Disbursing Agents, not required for current disbursing needs. As such, in a few instances, the group securities represent an investment of special deposit funds, a portion of which are ultimately for deposit in appropriate miscellaneous receipt accounts, the remainder representing balances of individual Indian moneys with which individual or tribal securities have not been purchased. Interest received on group securities is prorated for deposit to the various individual Indian money accounts in the ratio that each bears to the overall disbursing account and to the Indian Moneys Proceeds of Labor account maintained for each agency and school. 2/

There follows a listing of undistributed interest carried in the accounts of each agency as of June 30, 1951, which has been received as a result of investment in group securities.

INDIVIDUAL INDIAN MONIES

The amounts reported in the Summarisation, pages V to X, as Individual Indian Monies include only those funds of individual Indians, exclusive of Tribal Organisation Funds, on deposit with the Indian Service Special Disbursing Agents as of June 30, 1951, together with the balances of the undistributed interest accounts listed on page 170.

The funds reported herein as Individual Indian Monies in no way reflect the economic well-being of the individual Indian or his monetary status since it has been impracticable to canvass all private banks to ascertain the amounts of individual Indian accounts maintained.

The Individual Indian Monies reported herein are derived from the proceeds of timber sales, mining royalties, leasing of allotted lands, distribution of tribal funds, and voluntary deposits. The latter has been discouraged by recent Indian Service regulations. ^{1/}

^{1/} 25 Code of Federal Regulations, Section 221.6, as amended June 19, 1951.

LOANS PAYABLE

There are two classes of loans by the United States to tribes of Indians and individual Indians presently outstanding as follows:

1. Revolving Credit Loans ^{1/}; These loans are made from the revolving credit fund to Indian Chartered Corporations; recognized tribes and bands who have adopted a constitution and by-laws acceptable to the Secretary of the Interior; credit associations organized pursuant to the Oklahoma Welfare Act ^{2/}; cooperative associations whose members are not eligible to borrow from incorporated or unincorporated tribes; and to individual Indians who are not eligible to borrow from one of the foregoing organizations. The loans to individual Indians are referred to herein as direct loans.

Advances from the revolving credit fund, made prior to November 17, 1950, bear interest at the rate of one percent per annum except that advances to cooperative associations and individuals bear interest at the rate of 3 percent per annum. Subsequent to November 17, 1950, advances from the revolving credit fund bear interest at the rate of two percent per annum except that advances to cooperative associations and individuals bear interest at the rate of four percent per annum. ^{3/}

A total of $12,000,000 has been authorized for the revolving credit fund and as of June 30, 1951, $11,996,000 had been appropriated. ^{4/} There follows a statement of the status of the revolving credit fund as of June 30, 1951:

^{1/} Act of June 18, 1934; 48 Stat. 986.

^{2/} Act of June 26, 1936; 49 Stat. 1967.

^{3/} Section 21.6 Title 25 CFR as amended November 17, 1950.

2. Reimbursable loans are defined by the Indian Service Manual as all loans made to individual Indians from other than the revolving credit fund i.e., Industry among Indians; Emergency Relief; Interior Indians; Loans and Grants to Indians for Rehabilitation; and miscellaneous tribal funds. Most of the reimbursable loans are at the present time delinquent. Some of these loans have been outstanding for as many as 30 years and represent subsistence, feed, seed, and other items furnished in kind rather than direct advances of money.

The loans outstanding as of June 30, 1951, are set forth hereafter alphabetically by States and agencies. Loans are not delinquent except where specifically stated otherwise.

TRIBAL CLAIMS

There is presented hereafter a listing of Indian Claims for which petitions were on file with the Indian Claims Commission, created by the Act of August 13, 1946, ^{1/} and the United States Court of Claims, and were unsettled as of June 30, 1951. The petitions involve only those claims arising prior to the passage of the Act.

It is noted that the majority of the claims do not show any amounts; but those where specific amounts are claimed total over $2.5 billions.

The listing is presented insofar as possible alphabetically by states in which the tribes are presently headquartered.

SUBMARGINAL LANDS

The lands referred to herein as submarginal lands were purchased by the Department of Agriculture under authority granted in Title II of the National Industrial Recovery Act of June 15, 1933, ^{1/} the Emergency Relief Appropriation Act of April 8, 1935, ^{2/} and Section 55 of Title 1 of the Act of August 24, 1935. ^{3/} Title to the land was taken in the name of the United States with no trust attached. Administrative jurisdiction of the land was transferred to the Department of the Interior by Executive Order No. 7868, dated April 15, 1938, to be exercised through the Commissioner of Indian Affairs.

Regulations ^{4/} issued to cover the administration of these lands state that:

" Until otherwise provided grazing permits may be issued on these lands by the superintendent with the concurrence of the regional forester. Any fees collected for such grazing privileges shall be held in special deposit until further order."

Under these regulations, a considerable variance of administrative policy has been exercised at the various agencies with the result that prior to 1947, the collection of fees for the use of these lands was practically nonexistent. At some agencies the Indians were granted free use of the land; at others the only collections were for hay and timber cutting permits; in one state no collections for the United States have been made to this date; in another state the collections were deposited to "Indian Moneys, Proceeds of Labor," and still in another the collections were deposited to "Miscellaneous Receipts." In 1947, these lands were generally leased to the Indian tribes under a revocable permit for the nominal sum of one or two cents per acre. The lessees in turn sub-leased the lands to either Indians or whites through their leasing and land enterprises for amounts ranging upwards to one dollar per acre. The rental fees collected by the tribes have been deposited in tribal organization funds.

There follows a listing of the submarginal lands administered by the Commissioner of Indian Affairs setting forth the location, acreage, cost, and rental fees received to June 30, 1951, which are being held in special deposits, followed by narrative concerning each tract of land:

State of Florida

The Seminole project, consisting of 27,081 acres of submarginal land, is under the administrative jurisdiction of the Seminole Agency. The land has never been leased to the tribe and as of June 30, 1951, there was on deposit in the special deposit account $2,627.20, representing grazing fees collected during the period October, 1947 through November, 1948. During the period May, 1938 through November, 1945, there was received at the agency $15,305.13, representing proceeds from the sale of "cabbage palm leaves" on these submarginal lands. This amount was deposited in the Treasury to the tribal trust fund account "147303, Deposits, Proceeds of Labor, Seminole Indians." As of June 30, 1951, this money had not been transferred from the tribal trust fund account to the appropriate special deposit account. See also Tribal Funds, page 14.

State of Idaho

The Fort Hall project, consisting of 8,711 acres of submarginal land, is under the administrative jurisdiction of the Fort Hall Agency. There is no record to indicate that any rental was received for this land prior to January 1, 1947, at which time the land was leased to the Shoshone Bannock Tribes, Incorporated, at an annual rental rate of $174.22 due December 31 of each year. As of June 30, 1951, rental in the amount of $696.88 had been received and deposited to the miscellaneous receipt account "140320, Rental of Land, Fort Hall, Idaho." The Shoshone Bannock Tribes have subleased this land and deposited the rental received to the Tribal Land Enterprise and Leasing Enterprise in the total amount of $967.50.

State of Michigan

(See narrative under Great Lakes Agency, Wisconsin)

State of Minnesota

The Twin Lakes and Flat Lake projects are administered by the Consolidated Chippewa Agency. The earliest account of fees collected for use of these lands was found in a special deposit account entitled "Account of Sub-Marginal Land (Title in U.S.)" which reflected three transactions; a deposit of $9.00 on January 2, 1940, for "hay stumpage"; a deposit of $9.29 on March 8, 1940, source unknown, and on June 17, 1944, the account was closed, the balance of $18.29 transferred to the individual Indian money account "Minnesota Chippewa Tribe--For All General Purposes." The present account was initiated with an amount of $113.41, but there is nothing to indicate its source. As of June 30, 1951, the account reflected a balance of $15,565.13 derived from timber, log, and wood cutting permits and from hay and farming operations. The tribe has received no revenue from submarginal lands.

State of Montana

There is shown hereafter a schedule of the submarginal land projects in the State of Montana. Each project is under the administrative jurisdiction of the Indian Agency by the same name.

Project	Acreege	Leased to	Rental fees Received by the Tribes	Balance in Special Deposits as of June 30, 1951

Totals			$53,350.91	$90,503.34

State of North Dakota

The Fort Totten Project is under the administrative jurisdiction of the Standing Rock Agency. The Devils Lake Sioux Tribe leased the submarginal land, consisting of 1,424 acres, on a yearly basis from January 1, 1948 through December 31, 1957, for one cent per acre or $14.24 per year by revocable permit dated December 2, 1947. The land is subleased by the Tribal Land Enterprise along with other tribal and allotted lands. Approximately ten to twenty-five cents per acre is received as rental fee for grazing land, and the farming land is leased on a share basis for not less than $1 per acre. The submarginal land special deposit account reflected a balance of $14.24 as of June 30, 1951. An amount of $42.72 is due the account from the Devils Lake Sioux Tribe as rental fee for the years 1949, 1950, and 1951.

The Standing Rock project, consisting of 4,086 acres in North Dakota and 6,879 acres in South Dakota, is administered by the Standing Rock Agency. By revocable permit dated August 23, 1947, the lands were leased to the Standing Rock Sioux Tribe for the period April 1, 1948, to March 1, 1958, for one cent per acre per year. The land is subleased by the tribe to Indians for ten cents per acre and to non-Indians for twenty-five cents per acre. An additional seventy-five cents per acre is collected from non-Indians if hay is cut on the land. As of June 30, 1951, the special deposit account reflected a balance of $1,656.64 with the tribe owing $109.65 for rental for the calendar year 1951.

State of Oklahoma

The submarginal lands, comprising 19,708 acres, lying in Delaware and Adair counties, are under the jurisdiction of the Muskogee Area Office. The lands are comprised of several small tracts that are not contiguous and are interspersed with allotted lands, white-owned lands, and numerous other tracts purchased with rehabilitation funds. No grazing permits have ever been issued for these lands. Revenue has consisted of the consideration paid by assignees under temporary assignments and occupancy permits for individual farm units. Many of the assignments cover land acquired in various ways. The object was to make an economical farm unit irrespective of the manner of acquisition of the land and there has been no segregation of revenues or expenses. All revenue has been deposited in the Cherokee Rehabilitation Earnings account with the Indian Service Special Disbursing Agent.

It was the opinion of the director of the Extension Service of the Muskogee Area Office that the revenues from land utilized as individual farm units were not to be deposited in special deposits under the regulations as such revenues were not fees collected for grazing privileges. Several of the officials in the Area Office thought that much of the land transferred from the Resettlement Administration in other states, particularly the northwestern states, was in solid blocks, had been utilized exclusively for grazing by individual Indians and by non-Indians, and that the regulations covering the collection of fees were promulgated with such land in contemplation and not land comprised of several small tracts which were consolidated for utilization with other Indian lands.

The number of individual farm units in the two projects has varied. At the present time there are 31 occupancy permits in the Delaware project and 38 in the Adair project. All except one assignment covers relatively small tracts (homesites with an adjoining acre or two up to about 400 acres) and considerations range from $35 to $175 a year, of which about 50 percent is collected. Neither the Indian Service nor the courts have enforced collections from Indians who have occupied lands under permit but neglect to pay the contractual consideration. During the period 1937 - 1941, approximately 80 three-room houses were constructed on the projects with rehabilitation funds and during the past 12 years large sums have been expended on the improvement of roads, bridges, and fences.

State of Oregon

The Burns Colony Project, comprising 606 acres, is under the administrative jurisdiction of the Warm Springs Agency. As of June 30, 1951, there was on deposit in various special deposit accounts by name of payee the sum of $1,755.45, representing rental fees collected. At the present time the land is leased to the Burns-Paiute Tribe for $74 per year and the tribe in turn subleases the land for $120 per year. This tribe has no other regular income and has used the income received from subleasing this land for its own benefit.

The Cheyenne River Project, comprising 5,111 acres of submarginal land, is under the administrative jurisdiction of the Cheyenne River Agency. As of June 30, 1951, the special deposit account for fees collected reflected a balance of $50.80. The land was leased to the Cheyenne River Sioux Tribe by revocable permit dated September 4, 1947, effective December 1, 1947, at an annual rental of $51.11 per year or one cent per acre, but the tribe has never paid the annual rental. The tribe subleases the land for approximately 20 cents per acre and the income derived is credited to the tribal general fund. Service fees are credited to the Tribal Land Enterprise.

The Crow Creek project, comprising 34,767 acres is under the administrative jurisdiction of the Crow Creek Agency, of which 20,476 acres are leased to the Crow Creek Sioux Tribe at an annual rental of $409.52 and 14,291 acres are leased to the Lower Brule Sioux Tribe at an annual rental of $285.82, both leases being at two cents per acre. As of June 30, 1951, there was on deposit in the special deposit account, the sum of $32,196.65 representing the total of fees collected. The tribes have delegated the subleasing of these lands to the Tribal Land Purchase and Adjustment Enterprise and the Tribal Land Service Enterprise, respectively, and realize a substantial profit from the operation inasmuch as the lands are being subleased at fees ranging from 22 to 40 cents per acre.

The Pine Ridge project, comprising 46,522 acres is under the administrative jurisdiction of the Pine Ridge Agency. As of June 30, 1951, the special deposit account reflected a balance of $26,278.58 representing rental fees collected. Effective November 1, 1947, under revocable permit dated August 7, 1947, the land was leased at two cents per acre to the Oglala Sioux Tribe at an annual rental of $930.44. The land is in turn subleased by the Tribal Land Enterprise at the current grazing rate which was 24 cents per acre in 1951.

The Cutmeat and Antelope projects, comprising 28,890 acres of submarginal lands, are under the administrative jurisdiction of the Rosebud Agency. The land was leased to the Rosebud Sioux Tribe under revocable permit dated April 5, 1945, at an annual rental of $358.68 or approximately one and one quarter cents per acre. The land is subleased through the Tribal Land Enterprise at an average rate of 30 cents per acre. Prior to 1945 a number of Indians occupied various tracts without the payment of any fee. As of June 30, 1951, the special deposit account reflected a balance of $5,195.16.

State of Wisconsin

The following submarginal land projects are administered by the Great Lakes Agency:

Project	Acreage	Special deposit Balance as of June 30, 1951
L'Anse (Michigan)	4,016	$ 10.00
Bad River	13,605	480.19
Lac Courte Oreilles	12,993	438.62
Stockbridge	13,077	1,442.60

Agency records do not reflect a history of the submarginal land use. It was stated that the Indians have been granted free use of the lands and that the revenues reflected above were derived from timber cutting permits which generally involved the removal of fallen timber.
