CHAPTER I—BUREAU OF INDIAN AFFAIRS

Disposition of income from leases. (Repealed)

[§ 133.20]

Disposition of income from leases.

[10 F.R. 9192, Sept. 11, 1911]

Receipts from leases may be made according to the provisions of the orders of the Secretary of the Treasury, or under such regulations as may be promulgated by the Director, to be transmitted to the Superintendent of the United States Geological Survey, in duplicate, covering each lease, identifying by number and lease number. Such statements shall show the specific items of income as follows: income from the transaction; date, amount, and name of each lease.

(b) Rents and royalties paid pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section shall be paid by the lessee to the Director of the United States Geological Survey in the same manner as provided in paragraph (a) thereof. paragraph (a) shall be paid by check or bank draft to the order of the Treasurer of the United States at such place as may be specified in the lease, or in the case of lessees who may receive payments for each lease, separate remittances for each lease shall be mailed to the Director of the United States Geological Survey. Any payments under this section covering lands or interests therein for which records have been removed by the Director or otherwise may be used in the manner provided in this section until the fifteenth day of each month.

(c) The Director may, in his discretion, determine the amount of any less income from leases and direct the correction of any less income from leases. The Director may correct the amount of any less income from leases by written notice to the lessee; or the lessee may appeal to the Secretary of the Interior for approval of the Director's determination. The appeals to the Secretary shall be made in writing, stating the reasons for the appeal. The Secretary shall determine the amount of any less income from leases within thirty days from the date of the appeal. The decision of the Secretary shall be final and conclusive.

at such convenient times and places as the superintendent may designate, except as otherwise provided in this part.

\section{Rights of the superintendent}

\subsection{Rights of the superintendent}

Funds of a minor may be disbursed for the minor's support, health, education, welfare, and the interests of the minor's legal guardian. The authority to disburse these funds shall be exercised by the superintendent in accordance with the terms of the order of a court having jurisdiction over the minor, or in accordance with the terms of a written agreement between the superintendent and the legal guardian of the minor. Funds of a minor shall be disbursed only upon the occurrence of events or conditions specified in the order of a court or in the written agreement.

\subsection{Funds of deceased Indian individuals}

Funds of deceased Indian individuals may be transferred to the legal guardian of the minor, to a successor in interest, or to a custodian appointed by the court having jurisdiction over the minor. If no successor in interest or custodian can be appointed, the funds may be transferred to the legal guardian of the minor.

\subsection{Funds of deceased Indian individuals who are members of Indian tribes}

Funds of deceased Indian individuals who are members of Indian tribes may be transferred to the legal guardian of the minor, to a successor in interest, or to a custodian appointed by the court having jurisdiction over the minor. If no successor in interest or custodian can be appointed, the funds may be transferred to the legal guardian of the minor.

\subsection{Voluntary deposits}

Voluntary deposits are not to be accepted, and if accepted, the individual may be subject to legal action. However, voluntary deposits are to be accepted for the benefit of the minor, and the proceeds of the deposit are to be used for the benefit of the minor.

\subsection{Payments by other Federal agencies}

Payments by other Federal agencies are authorized to accept and administer moneys that may be received from the Veterans Administration, other government agencies, and other organizations. Except for the Veterans Administration, other government agencies shall be subject to the supervision and control of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs. The Commissioner of Indian Affairs shall be responsible for the expenditures of the moneys received.

\subsection{Purchase orders}

Purchase orders shall not be issued except upon the request of the individual and only to meet emergencies.

\subsection{Restrictions}

Funds obligated under assignments made pursuant to Part F of this chapter shall be disbursed only in accordance with the terms thereof. Funds derived from the sale of personal property, except as otherwise provided, are to be disbursed in accordance with the terms of the order of a court having jurisdiction over the minor or in accordance with the terms of a written agreement between the superintendent and the legal guardian of the minor.

\subsection{Programs required; purposes for which expenditures may be made}

Programs required; purposes for which expenditures may be made are to be determined by the superintendent. Expenditures for the purchase of land shall be made only upon the occurrence of events or conditions specified in the order of a court or in the written agreement.

\subsection{Scope of programs}

Programs shall be limited to the purchase of land or the provision of land or services for the benefit of the minor. Expenditures for the purchase of land shall be made only upon the occurrence of events or conditions specified in the order of a court or in the written agreement.
