UNITED STATES GEOLOGICAL SURVEY.

SALARIES.

For the Director of the Geological Survey and other personal services in the District of Columbia in accordance with "The Classification Act of 1923," $54,760.

Geological Survey.
Salaries.
Director, and office personnel. Ⓢ

GENERAL EXPENSES.

For every expenditure requisite for and incident to the authorized work of the Geological Survey, including personal services in the District of Columbia and in the field, including not to exceed $10,000 for the purchase and exchange, and not to exceed $30,000 for the hire, maintenance, repair, and operation of motor-propelled and horse-drawn passenger-carrying vehicles for field use only by geologists, topographers, engineers, and land classifiers, and the Geological Survey is authorized to exchange unserviceable and worn-out passenger-carrying and freight-carrying vehicles as part payment for new freight-carrying vehicles, and including not to exceed $5,000 for necessary traveling expenses of the Director and members of the Geological Survey acting under his direction, for attendance upon meetings of technical, professional, and scientific societies when required in connection with the authorized work of the Geological Survey, to be expended under the regulations from time to time prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior, and under the following heads:

General expenses.
Authorization for services, etc. Ante, p. 392.
Vehicles, etc.
Attendance upon meetings, etc.

For topographic surveys in various portions of the United States, including lands in national forests, $500,000: Provided, That no part of this appropriation shall be expended in cooperation with States or municipalities except upon the basis of the State or municipality bearing all of the expense incident thereto in excess of such an amount as is necessary for the Geological Survey to perform its share of standard topographic surveys;

Topographic surveys. Provido. Restriction on cooperative work with States, etc.

For geologic surveys in the various portions of the United States, $333,722, of which amount not to exceed $10,000 may be used for work in volcanology in the Hawaiian Islands and not to exceed $15,000 for examination of arsenic-bearing ores, to be immediately available;

Geologic Surveys.
Arsenic-bearing ores.

For chemical and physical researches relating to the geology of the United States, including researches with a view of determining geological conditions favorable to the presence of deposits of potash salts, $40,000;

Chemical and physical researches.
Potash salts.

For continuation of the investigation of the mineral resources of Alaska, $75,000, to be available immediately;

Alaska mineral resources.
Water supply investigations.

For gauging streams and determining the water supply of the United States, the investigation of underground currents and artesian wells, and the preparation of reports upon the best methods of utilizing the water resources, $170,000, of which $25,000 may be used to test the existence of artesian and other underground water supplies suitable for irrigation in the arid and semiarid regions by boring wells;

Artesian wells.

For the examination and classification of lands requisite to the determination of their suitability for enlarged homesteads, stock-raising homesteads, public watering places, and stock driveways, or other uses, as required by the public land laws, $280,000;

Classifying lands for enlarged homesteads, stock-raising, etc.

For engraving and printing geologic maps, $110,000;

Maps.
