of the first year’s rental. If the successful bidder fails to complete the lease or pay the full consideration within a period of one year, the lessee has the option to forfeit the bid. If the lease is approved through no fault of the lessee, the amount of the bonus and rental deposit is to be returned to the lessee, less 5% per cent of the bonus bid and the first year’s rental. Unless such period shall have been extended by the superintendent for good and sufficient reason, within twenty days after the date upon which the lease is forwarded to the successful bidder for execution he shall return to the superintendent the same complete and executed documents accompanied by the balance of the bonus and the first year’s rental.
