

Staff from California Governor Gavin Newsome's office informed Department of the Interior staff on 8/28/2020 that the Governor would not be submitting any American Hero nominations or California site recommendations for the new National Garden.