

U.S. Department of Transportation

TRANSServe Debit Card Overview

What is the TRANServe Debit Card?

- The TRANServe debit card is a Visa-branded debit card that provides your transit benefit electronically.
- TRANServe's Counsel has been working closely with Counsel from the U.S. Treasury Department, Financial Management Services and Internal Revenue Service to ensure regulatory compliance of the debit card.
- The debit card uses restricted merchant category codes to safeguard transit benefits from fraud, waste, and abuse.

Why Change From Paper Fare Media?

- The US Department of Transportation TRANServe is shifting its distribution methodology away from paper fare media to electronic fare media to tighten internal controls and support Green Government
- Transit authorities across the nation are moving away from paper fare media and are implementing electronic fare media such as the Orca, "Q," Breeze cards
- The primary goal of the transition to Electronic Fare Media (EFM) is to use a single fare media delivery system that offers enhanced internal controls to preserve the transit benefit by deterring waste, fraud, and abuse

TRANServe Debit Card Advantages

Internal Controls

- Participant's name on card
- Robust vendor system
- Widely accepted by transit authorities
- Fraud, waste, and abuse reporting
 - TRANServe notifies agencies of suspected misuse

Advantages Continued:

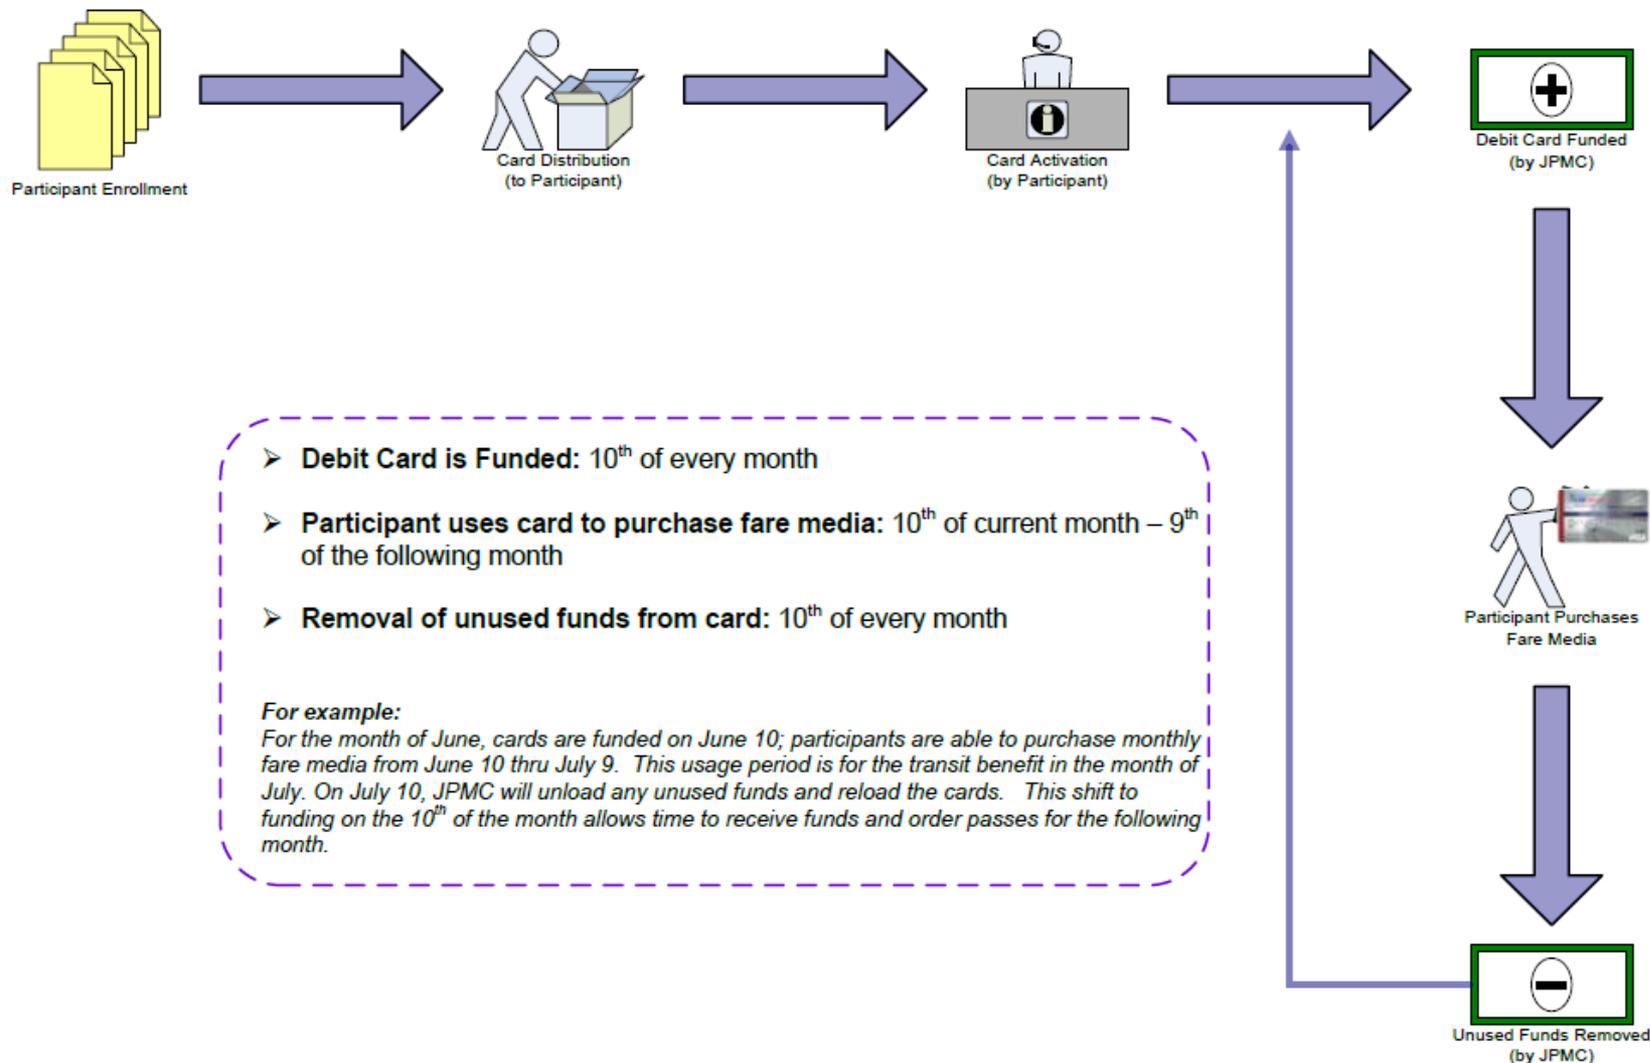

Savings

- Distribution costs
- Voucher surcharges
- No distribution lines
- Automatic return of unused funds

How Does My Agency Make the Transition?

- Complete the TRANServe issued Enrollment Spreadsheet and Certification Statement
 - Provide additional validation information (work phone, work zip, and common identifier)
 - Sign the Certification Statement
 - Annual recertification is a requirement of the TRANServe program. Please work with your agency to ensure this requirement is met
 - E-mail completed Enrollment Spreadsheet and signed Certification Statement to TRANServe Transit Benefit Manager
- The TRANServe Debit Card will be delivered to Agency POC(s) for distribution; or, TRANServe will hold initial distribution at a designated location

Debit Card Disclosure Statement

The Debit Card Disclosure Statement describes the agreement between JPMorgan Chase Bank and the Agency through which you have been issued a Debit Card.

- As a Federal Transit Benefit recipient your use of this Card is your personal certification that you will:
 - Surrender this Card to your employing Federal Agency upon demand.
 - Not be named on a worksite parking permit at any Federal Agency or participate in a carpool.
 - Not transfer or authorize the use of your Card to anyone.
 - Ensure the amount of the transit benefit you receive does not exceed your actual monthly commuting cost by public transportation.
 - Use this Card and the transit benefit only for your regular home to work transportation.
- Funds deposited to the Account for which the Card has been issued to you by your Agency less any amounts previously withdrawn or used by you and any fees, charges, conversion fees, and other expenses incurred in connection with the Card issued to you, are owned by your Agency. There is no FDIC insurance or Regulation E protection provided.
- Only your Agency can make deposits to the Account for which the Card has been issued. You may not make deposits in any form to this Account.
- Only your Agency may cancel the Card that has been issued to you and close the Account associated with that Card. Upon cancellation, any unused funds on the Account are returned to your Agency.
- You can only use the Card at a point-of-sale merchant (POS) where the Card is accepted.
- There is no monthly paper statement. You can obtain deposit and transaction histories from the My Account web site (www.myAccount.chase.com).
- If you use the Card at a merchant and a transaction dispute with the merchant arises, you agree to make a good faith effort to settle the dispute with the merchant. Any unresolved dispute may be sent to JPMorgan Chase Bank, in writing, for assistance in settlement within 60 days from the date of the transaction. You may contact us at www.myAccount.chase.com or send mail to JPMorgan Chase Customer Service Center, P.O. Box 2016, Elgin, IL 60121-2016.
- As a Chase Debit Cardholder you are not liable in the event of an unauthorized use of the Card under the following conditions:
 - The Account for which you are responsible is in good standing.
 - You have exercised reasonable care in safeguarding the Card.
 - You have not reported two or more unauthorized events in the past 12 months.

Debit Card Nationwide Roll Out

by major city and service area

The TRANServe debit card roll out strategy divides the nation into 8 service areas by taking TRANServe statistical data on number of participants, agencies, and Transit Authorities. The service area boundaries provide for a balanced geographic division considering minimal disruption to Agency's workload. The roll out schedule focuses on implementing the debit card one service area at time and maintains a balanced and consistent workload over a nationwide debit card transition initiative.

Service Area	Color code	Service Area	Color code
Service Area 1 (DC-VA-MD)		Service Area 5 (Northeast)
Service Area 2 (Southeast)		Service Area 4 (Pacific Northwest)
Service Area 3 (Upper Midwest)		Service Area 7 (Southwest-HI)
Service Area 6 (California)		Service Area 8 (TX-Lower Midwest-PR)

Debit Card Rollout Kit

- Includes tools to help agencies transition to the debit card
- Provided to Agency POCs closer to the debit card transition date
- Documents in the roll out kit:
 - TRANServe General EFM FAQs
 - Checklist for Debit Card Receipt and Distribution

Next Steps

- Receive email communication from the TBM identifying the regions transitioning to the debit card
- Complete enrollment spreadsheets
- Receive the debit card roll out kit
- Recertify participants into the debit card program as needed

Your TBM is available to answer any questions
