Kauwahi ‘Anaina Hawai‘i Hawaiian Civic Club

Established:
 Oct 2005

Summary: As an organization under the auspices of our parent the Association of Hawaiian Civic Clubs, Kauwahi ‘Anaina Hawai‘i Hawaiian Civic Club's purpose is to promote and perpetuate traditional Native Hawaiian values and cultural expressions, especially as our children born outside of our native Hawai‘i may learn and embrace those same values and practices. Also, it is of prime importance that other Native Hawaiians in Utah have a sense of identity with other Native Hawaiians in this locale through Kauwahi ‘Anaina Hawai‘i Hawaiian Civic Club, while being effective contributors in our individual communities and strong supporters of issues concerning Native Hawaiians in the State of Hawai‘i.

Endangered Species

Established:
 May 2009

Summary: This organization is exclusively for charitable and educational purposes. It is our mission to provide Native Hawawiians with hand-on training in the construction industry. We will accomplish this mission by fostering the sense of "doing" and innovative thinking that is an intrinsic part of our culture. We envision a Native Hawaiian workforce that is both leading-edge and culturally cognizant at the same time. We will encourage our students to cultivate the value of Malama by passing on their knowledge to others in their community and by providing additional career opportunities for other Native Hawaiians, should they choose to go into business for themselves.
