Ms. Ruthe B. Jones

Non-responsive

Dear Ms. Jones:

It gives me great pleasure to reappoint you to serve as a Commissioner of the Indian Arts and Crafts Board for the term expiring September 30, 2018.

The Indian Arts and Crafts Board promotes the development of American Indian and Alaska Native arts and crafts. The Commissioners determine the overall policies of the Board and supervise the implementation of these policies through a professional staff. The Commissioners also advise the Secretary on Native American cultural matters.

Please be aware that under applicable ethics laws, your appointment carries with it the status of "special Government employee." This means that you will be subject to many of the same standards of conduct that apply to Federal employees in general, including the avoidance of conflict of interest. The standards that are specific to special Government employees are shown on the enclosed summary. As a special Government employee you also will be required to file a confidential financial disclosure form. A copy of the disclosure and instructions are enclosed.

Ms. Meredith Stanton, Director of the Indian Arts and Crafts Board, will be personally contacting you with further information regarding the Board, including financial disclosure requirements.

Ms. Stanton can be reached at (202) 208-3773 or at Meridith_Stanton@ios.doi.gov. I believe that your continued dedication and expertise will be an invaluable contribution to the important mission of the Indian Arts and Crafts Board.

Sincerely,

Sally Jewell
