Ms. Lauren M. Peters

Non-responsive

Winters, California 95694

Dear Ms. Peters:

It gives me great pleasure to appoint you to the Native American Graves Protection and Repatriation Review Committee (Committee) representing Indian tribes, Native Hawaiian organizations, and traditional Indian religious leaders. Your appointment is effective the date of this letter and will extend through September 23, 2017.

The Committee is authorized by the Native American Graves Protection and Repatriation Act of 1990 (25 U.S.C. 3001-3013). The purpose of the Committee is to monitor, review, and assist in the implementation of certain requirements of the Act. The Committee faces a challenging set of tasks, ranging from assisting in the resolution of disputes, to advising the Secretary of the Interior on specific actions for developing a process for disposition of culturally unidentifiable Native American human remains.

Please be aware that under applicable ethics laws, your appointment carries with it the status of special Government employee. This means that you will be subject to many of the same standards of conduct that apply to Federal employees in general, including the avoidance of conflict of interest. The standards that are specific to special Government employees are shown on the enclosed summary. As a special Government employee, you are required to file a confidential financial disclosure form and complete ethics training on an annual basis. Please review the enclosed information regarding special Government employees and return the required forms within 30 days.

Ms. Melanie O'Brien is the Designated Federal Officer and will contact you with further information regarding the Committee's activities. Ms. O'Brien can be reached at (202) 354-2204.

Thank you for your willingness to share your expertise, perspective, and skill on this important matter.

Sincerely,

Sally Jewell
