Alex had emailed me last week that they would be in town. NACo had wanted him to speak at the conference as well. He won't be confirmed by that time--my understanding is the earliest the Senate will be able to vote on him will be March 1 (30 hours after the ~7PM 2/27 cloture vote) We're still not scheduling policy-related meetings for RZ. I'm not sure if they had emailed a request to the Congressional office, but they should; I told Alex last week that the best bet would be to have Tripp meet with them in the office since RZ will be in and out and may be able to say hi.

Flagging for Micah as well- just in case there is anything that can be done, recognizing the crazy timeline involved. Commissioner Devlin is a good guy and very close associate of Lesley Robinson's. Hope you guys are well.
