More than one-third of Hawaiian home lands is situated on the county of Hawaii. Since there is significantly more Hawaiian home lands on the county of Hawaii than on any other county, the legislature finds it would be more equitable and in the public interest to have at least two members who are residents of the county of Hawaii on the commission, of which one member shall be a resident of east Hawaii and the other member shall be a resident of west Hawaii.

SECTION 2. Section 202, Hawaiian Homes Commission Act, 1920, as amended, is amended by amending subsection (a) to read as follows:

“(a) There shall be a department of Hawaiian home lands which shall be headed by an executive board to be known as the Hawaiian homes commission. The members of the commission shall be nominated and appointed in accordance with section 26-34, Hawaii Revised Statutes. The commission shall be composed of [eight] nine members, as follows: three shall be residents of the city and county of Honolulu; [one] two shall be [a resident] residents of the county of Hawaii; one of whom shall be a resident of east Hawaii and the other a resident of west Hawaii; two shall be residents of the county of Maui; one of whom shall be a resident from the island of Molokai; one shall be a resident of the county of Kauai; and the [eighth] ninth member shall be the chairman of the Hawaiian Homes Commission. All members shall have been residents of the State at least three years prior to their appointment and at least four of the members shall be descendants of not less than one-fourth part of the blood of the races inhabiting the Hawaiian islands previous to 1778. The members of the commission shall serve without pay, but shall receive actual expenses incurred by them in the discharge of their duties as such members. The governor shall appoint the chairman of the commission from among the members thereof.

The commission may delegate to the chairman such duties, powers, and authority or so much thereof, as may be lawful or proper for the performance of the functions vested in the commission. The chairman of the commission shall serve in a full-time capacity. He shall, in such capacity, perform such duties, and exercise such powers and authority, or so much thereof, as may be delegated to him by the commission as herein provided above.”

SECTION 3. Section 26-17, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is amended to read as follows:

“The department of Hawaiian home lands shall be headed by an executive board to be known as the Hawaiian homes commission.

The commission shall be composed of [eight] nine members. The appointment, tenure, and removal of the members and the filling of vacancies on the commission shall be in accordance with section 26-34 and section 202(a) of the Hawaiian Homes Commission Act of 1920, as amended. The governor shall appoint the chairman of the commission from among the members thereof.

The commission may delegate to the chairman such duties, powers, and authority, or so much thereof as may be lawful or proper, for the performance of the functions vested in the commission.
The chairman of the board shall serve in a full time capacity and shall perform such duties, and exercise such powers and authority, or so much thereof as may be delegated to the chairman by the board.

The department shall administer the Hawaiian Homes Commission Act of 1920 as set forth in the Constitution of the State and by law.

The functions and authority heretofore exercised by the Hawaiian homes commission as heretofore constituted are transferred to the department of Hawaiian home lands established by this chapter."

SECTION 4. Statutory material to be repealed is bracketed. New statutory material is underscored.

SECTION 5. The provisions of the amendments made by this Act to the Hawaiian Homes Commission Act, 1920, as amended, are declared to be severable, and if any section, sentence, clause, or phrase, or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held ineffective because there is a requirement of having the consent of the United States to take effect, then that portion only shall take effect upon the granting of consent by the United States and effectiveness of the remainder of these amendments or the application thereof shall not be affected.

SECTION 6. This Act shall take effect upon its approval.

(Amended June 8, 1989.)
