2018 Yukon River Fall Salmon Fishery News Release #67
Reminder: Return 2018 Salmon Fishing Permits Districts Affected: Yukon Area

Yukon Area subsistence and personal use salmon fishing permits expired on October 15 and are due back to the ADF&G Fairbanks office by October 25 for the following permit areas:

Yukon River: Rampart, Yukon River Bridge, Circle and Eagle
Tanana River: Subdistrict 6-A (Manley), Subdistrict 6-B (Nenana) and Personal Use in Subdistrict 6-C (Fairbanks/North Pole).

Non-salmon subsistence and personal use permits expire on December 31 and are due by January 10. These permits include Upper Tanana River drainage subsistence, Tolovana River drainage subsistence for northern pike, Koyukuk River subsistence, and personal use whitefish/sucker (Fairbanks/North Pole).

If you are not done salmon fishing by October 15, please call the Fairbanks office at (907) 459-7274 to request an extension. If you are done salmon fishing this year, please review the harvest information you wrote down on the permit. If no one in your household went fishing, please check the "Did Not Fish" box on the permit and return it. If you have lost your permit, please contact the Fairbanks office.

Permits can be returned online at www.adfg.alaska.gov/sf/PU (enter harvest information and click return permit), in person at your local department office, or by mail to the address listed above.

The department thanks you for your cooperation.
