Federal Subsistence Board to Hold Work Session in Anchorage

The Federal Subsistence Board will hold a work session on January 12 and if needed on January 13, 2016 beginning at 8:30 a.m. daily. The work session will be held at the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service Regional Office located at 1011 E. Tudor Rd. in Anchorage. During the work session, the Board will consider 44 projects proposed for funding under the Fisheries Resource Monitoring Program. In addition, the Board will review the framework for the Rural Determination process. Other business items may be discussed by the Board during this work session.

Throughout the session, there may be opportunities for the public to testify on both agenda and non-agenda items.

The full agenda and any available materials will be posted to the Federal Subsistence Management Program's website at www.doi.gov/subsistence prior to this work session.

The public is welcome and encouraged to attend and participate in person or by teleconference. To teleconference, dial TOLL FREE 1-888-455-5897, then when prompted enter the passcode 3344290. If attending in person, photo identification, such as a driver's license, must be presented to building security.

The Federal Subsistence Board is committed to providing access to this work session for all participants. Please direct requests for sign language interpreting services, closed captioning, or other accommodation needs to the Office of Subsistence Management at (800) 478-1456 or (907) 786-3888 or by e-mail, subsistence@fws.gov by close of business on January 5, 2016.
