Federal Subsistence Board to address Memorandum of Agreement between the Department of the Interior and the Ahtna Inter-Tribal Resource Commission

The Federal Subsistence Board will meet January 13, 2017 at the William A. Egan Civic and Convention Center in Anchorage to discuss the Memorandum of Agreement (MOA) between the Department of the Interior (Department) and the Ahtna Inter-Tribal Resource Commission (AITRC). This MOA is entered into for the purpose of formalizing the subsistence wildlife management partnership between the Department and AITRC. The Board will accept public testimony and address Alaska National Interest Lands Conservation Act (ANILCA) Section 805 requirements associated with implementation of the MOA. The MOA may be viewed at <https://www.doi.gov/pressreleases/interior-and-ahtna-intertribal-resource-commission-agree-cooperative-wildlife>.

The public is encouraged to participate either in person or by teleconference.

To participate in this meeting by teleconference, dial TOLL FREE (888) 455-5897, the passcode is 3344290. The agenda and any available materials will be posted to the Federal Subsistence Management Program's website by December 30, 2016 at www.doi.gov/subsistence.

The Federal Subsistence Board is committed to providing access to this meeting for all participants. Please direct requests for sign language interpreting services, closed captioning, or other accommodation needs to the Office of Subsistence Management at (800) 478-1456 or (907) 786-3888 or by e-mail, subsistence@fws.gov by close of business on December 30, 2016.
