Below are graphical summaries that show the Board’s caseload for FY17.
About a quarter of all pending cases each month are suspended from consideration. The Board suspends appeals to facilitate the parties’ settlement discussions or because of ongoing litigation in Federal Court that will affect the outcome of the appeal.
The Board’s inventory is illustrated by the red line and secondary vertical axis on this graphic’s right-hand side.