Federal Subsistence Board to hold teleconference to consider proposals to change Federal subsistence hunting and trapping regulations

PUBLIC NOTICE - The Federal Subsistence Board (Board) will meet via teleconference only, April 20-23, 2020, to consider proposed changes to Federal subsistence hunting and trapping regulations for the 2020-2022 regulatory years, and to discuss other subsistence related topics. The regulatory proposals may be viewed at www.doi.gov/subsistence/proposal/current.

The Federal Subsistence Board encourages the public to participate by teleconference. Throughout the meeting, there will be opportunities for the public to testify on both agenda and non-agenda items. At the start of each day, public comments on general subsistence issues will be welcomed. The public will be provided the opportunity to comment on specific hunting and trapping proposals while each proposal is considered by the Board.

To participate in this meeting by teleconference, dial toll-free (888) 566-1030 (passcode 3344290). The full agenda and any available meeting materials will be posted to the Federal Subsistence Management Program's website at www.doi.gov/subsistence/board.

The Federal Subsistence Board is committed to providing access to this meeting for all participants. Please direct requests for sign language interpreting services, closed captioning, or other accommodation needs to the Office of Subsistence Management at (800) 478-1456 / (907) 786-3888 or by e-mail at subsistence@fws.gov at least seven business days prior to the meeting.

Additional information on the Federal Subsistence Management Program may be found on the web at www.doi.gov/subsistence or by visiting www.facebook.com/subsistencealaska.
