Federal Subsistence Board to consider proposals to change Federal subsistence hunting and trapping regulations

The Federal Subsistence Board (Board) will meet April 10-13, 2018 at the William A. Egan Civic and Convention Center in Anchorage to consider proposed changes to Federal subsistence hunting and trapping regulations for the 2018-2020 regulatory years, and other subsistence related topics. The regulatory proposals may be viewed at www.doi.gov/subsistence/proposal/current. The public is encouraged to participate either in person or by teleconference. Throughout the meeting, there will be opportunities for the public to testify on both agenda and non-agenda items. At the start of each day, public comments on general subsistence issues are welcome. Any public comments that relate to specific hunting and trapping proposals will be allowed during the period in which the proposals are presented.

To participate in this meeting by teleconference, dial toll-free (888) 455-5897 (passcode 3344290). The full agenda and any available meeting materials will be posted to the Federal Subsistence Management Program's website at www.doi.gov/subsistence/archives.

The Federal Subsistence Board is committed to providing access to this meeting for all participants. Please direct requests for sign language interpreting services, closed captioning, or other accommodation needs to the Office of Subsistence Management at (800) 478-1456 / (907) 786-3888 or by e-mail at subsistence@fws.gov at least seven business days prior to the meeting.
