To Host a Printmaking Class

May 2, 2019

BROWNING, MONTANA: The Museum of the Plains Indian, administered by the U.S. Department of the Interior, Indian Arts and Crafts Board, in partnership with the Friends of the Museum of the Plains Indian, will host a one-day printmaking class on Saturday June 8. The class will be held from 1:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m.

The printmaking class is free and will be open to students ages 13 to 18. To enroll in the class, please call the museum at 406-338-2230 to reserve a space. Enrollment will be limited to the first twelve applicants.

The class will be taught by a well-known Blackfeet artist and museum employee David Dragonfly. Students will learn the basics of linoleum block printmaking, how to design the block to print, and cutting and carving a block for print. All supplies will be included. The students will be able to take home their finished works.

The Museum of the Plains Indian is managed by the U.S. Department of the Interior, Indian Arts and Crafts Board. Regular viewing hours are Monday through Friday, 10:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. The Museum of the Plains Indian is open year around. The museum is located at 19 Museum Loop Rd., Browning, Montana 59417. For more information, call the museum at 406-338-2230.
