Let me know when you would like to get together and I can get the folks that manage our mail operations involved. I don't anticipate this being a big deal assuming we can ensure the incoming mail has a specific mailstop or some identifying characteristic. And we can talk through setting aside a room when we get together. Thanks

Randy Bowman (copied here) is working on a project for Jim Cason, and needs to discuss a couple of related needs. We are seeking public comment on a review Randy is doing, and we will need to work with the mailroom on how to identify and segregate the written comments, and will need an unused office/conference room space to hold them so Randy and others can review. Randy/I are/am happy to discuss in person when you get a moment. Thank you!
