She is still reviewing earlier work for overlap and duplications. As of this point, we have 2,836,278 comments recorded in regs.gov, including the number of names, postcards etc in attachments. The preliminary number for comments etc in attachments was 2,067,517. That may be too high by tens of thousands due to possible overlap. All of those were opposed to the review.

I gave Downey the numbers she wanted for the report from yours and Jennifer's preliminary - total number of attachments and form letters. She decided not include those in the current draft of the report. However, we will certainly need them later. I will give you Jennifer's final numbers as soon as I receive them, hopefully later today.

Jennifer should finish totaling the attachments and the mailed-in comments no later than mid-day tomorrow. I will get those numbers to you as soon as I have them.
